Conviction: Songs of Faith from Women in Prison

I Choose You

Regina Bridges

Intro: Dm F C

C Am
When I first met him made me feel like a queen,
F C
Like there was no other woman but me
C Am F C
When I first met him, but oh, oh...

Pre-chorus

F C
Love scarred, broken promises
F
Leaves marks on your heart that won't go away.
Dm F C
Oh, oh, I can still hear you say...

Chorus

C
I choose you for my bride
Am
I choose you to be by my side
F
In the good and the bad
G
I'll be holding your hand
C
For you I'll bleed and die
Am
For you I lay down my life
F G C
My beautiful bride I chose you

I believed your promises were true
And, oh, how I trusted you
What happened to our home? Why do I feel so alone?

Pre-chorus

Blood stained walls, my bruised body,
Sex and tears, they weren't meant to be friends,
Head held low in shame, I'm sorry,
Where do my tears end, where do I begin?
But, oh - oh, I remember when you said...

Chorus

Looked everywhere, couldn't find a real love
Now I know one whose promises are true
Deep in my heart, I found a real love, I knew it, I knew it, I knew.

Pre-chorus

F C
No, fear always near to me,
F C
A love like you wouldn't believe
F C
That's what Jesus will do for you
Dm G
Showed me who I was meant to be...

Chorus
